Larry was one of a kind. We met Larry and Sue shortly after they moved here...just like us. We shared many great times together watching our children...as well as our waistlines grow. He had a wicked sense of humor and a generous heart. We will always remember with a smile his kegerator criteria. Rest in peace, Larry. You are and will always be a treasure. We raise a glass from a growler of specialty beer in your honor. We will miss your smile Prayers to Sue and Kaitlyn and the grandchildren for peace and comfort as they move forward in life. He will always hold a place In our hearts.
