Herman Kampo

Herman Kampo
IRON MOUNTAIN - Herman J. Kampo, 86, of W8007 Dawns Lake Road, died Tuesday, Feb. 24, 2004, at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Iron Mountain.
Herman was born Oct. 5, 1917, in Milwaukee, son of the late Anton and Emma (Eidtman) Kampo.
He served in the U.S. Army in the Pacific Theater during World War II in the 32nd Division (Red Arrow Division), where he received the Purple Heart.
Herman married Joyce Fraker on Aug. 9, 1947, in Milwaukee. He retired after 25 years as a painter with the Milwaukee County Parks Service.
Herman volunteered for 12 years as an income tax preparer for those with low income and senior citizens. He loved to fish and enjoyed dancing, and in his younger days, swimming and playing tennis.
He is survived by his wife, Joyce; two daughters, Gail (Thomas) Wroblewski of Normal, Ill. and Cherry (Lawrence) Lindberg of Iron Mountain; two grandchildren, Karin (Chris) Severns of Marysville, Ohio and Christopher (Rachel) Wroblewski of Nashville, Tenn.; and two great-grandchildren, Alyssa and Breana Severns.
He was preceded in death by two sisters, Dorothy Meister and Minerva Krueger; and a son, Richard Litersky.
Private family services were held with Rev. David Anderson officiating.
Burial will be in Highland Memorial Park in Milwaukee.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Herman J. Kampo online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements.
