“ Grandma I have so many memories of us visiting with you and Grandpa. Bringing the boys over in their trick or treating costumes every year. I know you are with Grandpa and Matt and other loved ones. I love you to the moon and back. Rest in peace with the angels. Cassi

“ We could never think of just Elizabeth here in Las Vegas - we always thought "Elizabeth and Elmer" because in their retirement years they were always together arm in arm. On Sunday mornings they would get all dressed up and enter St. Francis de Sales Church almost like royalty with their matching pure white hair and matching smiles. Elizabeth was a Eucharistic Minister and Elmer was a Reader - always a part of the mass. A more devout couple you will never find. Devout in their faith and devout in each other. Elizabeth once told me she waited nine years for Elmer. Another testament to her perseverance. She knew what she wanted. She lived a long, giving life, and she's lucky to have had the family support she had in her twilight years. May she rest in peace in the loving arms of God and her Elmer.

“ Elizabeth and Elmer were the founders of Italian Catholic Federation Branch 367 in Las Vegas, Nevada in 1983. Without the perseverance and persistence of these two wonderful people, ICF in Las Vegas could not begin. We had many, many bake sales in front of St. Francis de Sales Church and Elmer would get up early and hand-knead his famous bread for us to sell. Elizabeth would make her famous blueberry pies or her famous Christmas ring made of Rice Krispy treat and gum drops. Elizabeth and Elmer attended the ICF annual conventions for many years and made many friends within ICF from Chicago to California. ICF owes a debt of gratitude to these two wonderful people for their leadership and their faith. The clergy of St. Francis de Sales were always remembered at Christmastime by the Parolini's generosity in gifts and baked goods. The world needs more people like Elizabeth and Elmer. They are sorely missed by all who knew them. I remember the day Elizabeth told us they would be moving to Michigan because their doctor told them they can no longer take care of each other. How devastating that news was for Branch 367, and yet, we knew it was coming. May God bless their souls and keep them in his arms - because they deserve it.
