

Ethel Ann Tavonatti

July 25, 1929 - October 21, 2021

Ethel Ann Tavonatti passed away in her home on October 21, 2021 at the age of 92. Her beloved husband of 67 years, Richard J Tavonatti, was by her side until the very end.

Ethel was born and raised in Kingsford, MI. She lived in Chicago for over 50 years before moving back into the original house her husband was born and raised in! Here the two of them enjoyed a long retirement amongst many family and friends. Ethel loved to play dominos, card games, and Scrabble, and she enjoyed making puzzles with her husband. She also enjoyed watching soap operas like Bold and the Beautiful and the Young and the Reckless, which she had been watching since the 90s. She also enjoyed classic game shows like Wheel of Fortune and The Price is Right, and she had been watching The People's Court from the early days of Judge Wapner up until Judge Judy. Ethel and Richard were also avid gardeners, and throughout the years they tended a beautiful vegetable garden in their own back yard, which Richard would constantly have to make deer and rabbit proof. Throughout their retirement, they traveled back to Chicago to visit the families of their three daughters, and spend time with all of her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Ethel also loved angels, and her home was decorated with countless statues and paintings depicting them. Endless photos of her family, whom she loved deeply, adorned the walls throughout the house.

Ethel is survived by her devoted husband of 67 years, Richard; her daughters Pamela (Louie) Amoroso and Lisa (Tim Svetly) Tavonatti; grandchildren Anthony Mulatz, Gina (Greg Maryniaczyk) Amoroso, Jason (Nicky) Mulatz, Clayton (Alisha) Luc, and Christopher (Meghyn) Tavonatti; siblings Ron Mortl and Rosemary Krebs; brother-in-law Donald (Evelyn) Tavonatti; and nephew Jeff Tavonatti. She was the proud great-grandmother of 9; Massimino, Marcella, Marc Anthony, Nico, Georgia, Beck, Corbin, Topaz and Zenona; and was an aunt to multiple nieces and nephews.

Ethel is preceded in death by her parents George and Mary Mortl; daughter Linda (Tom) Mulatz; brothers Robert and George Mortl, and sister Joyce Bruel.

Ethel's final wishes to be cremated and buried in Iron Mountain Cemetery Park will be honored.

She was a wonderful, caring woman who will be greatly missed by all that she leaves behind. She will never be forgotten.

“ My best friend's mother. My memories of Ethel are of her always on the go... and cooking! I developed a love of Italian food at the Tavonatti household, but it spoiled me for her red sauce, there has never been any to compare! You never left her table hungry.

We had fun playing cards and working jig-saw puzzles, and watching old shows like Leave it to Beaver. I know she will be watching over her family now, like the angels she loved. Rest In Peace dear Ethel.
