“ My deepest condolences to your immediate family, extended family and her dear friends. Several years ago I worked with Kris. All my memories of her are great memories. It's impossible for anyone to have anything less. I remember Kris as such an attractive, kind-hearted and fun-loving person. I still see her in my mind's eye zipping around the office at the speed of light. Always proficient and accommodating, She treated everyone so nicely and had such a special way of brighten a day like no one else. My heart goes out to all who loved her and to those she loved. Kris was a wonderful person.

“ Dan and family, I heard of Kris's passing from a local friend. I am so sorry for your loss. My memories all come from our school days and the class of 1970, lots of fun, hanging out with “ the gang” of many. You both shared a full life together, starting way back then. May you find comfort in knowing old friends care for all of you. In sadness, prayers of her eternal life now. Sue (Nelson) Higgins

“ Kris was a great friend, always there me! That smile, that laugh and her classy style will remain with everyone whoever crossed her path. Miss her so bad already and will continue to talk to her everyday. She is pain free now and will be sending comfort to all who were lucky enough to know her. Cheers Kris!
