His college years were also filled with activities including dramatics, debate and presidency of the Student Senate.

In a career full of decision-making, Bob always claimed that his best decision and good fortune was his marriage to his beloved Virginia Henneberry in 1956. Governor George Romney appointed him to the Probate and Juvenile court. He subsequently served at all levels of the trial court system. Judge Payant was elected by his colleagues to president of the Michigan Probate Court Association and later as president of the Michigan District Judges Association. Bob was the first chair of the Michigan Commission on Aging and served on the Marquette Diocese Catholic Community Services board.

Major improvements in the court rules were drafted under Payant's direction as well as the adoption of extensive changes in the sentence guidelines adopted by the Michigan courts and used as models by many states. The Payants returned to Reno and Bob became President and CEO of the College from 1990 until his retirement in 1999 when he was granted the title "President Emeritus".

He made many trips overseas at the invitation of foreign judicial associations and the American government to assist in creating judicial training programs. He has been honored by the American Bar Association, the American Judges Association and the American Judicature Society. Marquette University Law School in 2006 awarded him its Lifetime Achievement Award. In his retirement years, the College continued to use Judge Payant's teaching skills, especially with international programs conducted both in Reno and overseas.

Upon his retirement, the Catholic bishops of Nevada asked him to develop a Nevada Catholic Conference as the public voice of the Church and during that time he testified many times before the Nevada Legislature on matters of interest to the Catholic Church. “ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you in your time of sorrow. As a close neighbor and friend growing up. Judge V. Robert was a kind, thoughtful, and insightful family man with the best of values. We always had the most respect and admiration for his knowledge of the law and system. Most fondly, were our memories of Christmas songs and the decorating the famous 10' blue spruce tree from Sagola with popcorn and cranberries. Kindest regards, James, Patti, and Mike Skoglund

“ MY Heartfelt sympathy and prayers to all the Payant Family in the loss of this good man. It was a loss to this community when he left for bigger things regarding law, as God had planned for him. How well I recall climbing the steps to his Office at the old First National Bank when my late hubby Harlan and I were making our very first Will for gaurdianship of our four children as we were to go on a trip all the way to Florida about 1963. Bob gave us good advice then and we were grateful. God's blessings and comforting love be with Bobs' family. Jesus has no doubt welcomed Bob to his Eternal Home already prepared for him.

“ My condolences to Virginia and the family. I sought Judge Payants advice and counsel on several occasions. He was a well of knowledge that was unselfishly shared with all . I can't recount the numbers of times that other judges, upon learning that I was from Iron Mountain would ask if I knew Judge Payant, and that alone opened up a better professional relationship with them, We have lost a truly great man Jason Julian, Dewitt, Michigan.
