“ It is not possible for us to cross the bridge across the Hamilton Creek, past the Thoresons' home, and not think of the wedding of Cole and Chelsea at that beautiful spot. A highlight of Rev. Jim Danielson's message was how God's love for us and His precious gift of life flows continuously. He asked Grandma Thoreson if the creek had ever failed her and gone dry in all her years. She answered with a happy lilt in her voice it had not, and she became a testimonial to the preacher's words, sitting among the rest of us as a treasure of the past. She will remain that for all of us. A garden party is the PERFECT celebration of her life. Our love goes out to all her family. May rich memories, the love of family and friends, and your faith support you as you deal with the loss of this lovely lady.

Thank you so much for this! It's hard not to look down at the creek and not think of her. She remembered our vows and would write them on our anniversary card every year. We miss her so dearly already ❤️
