Albert Patrick

KINGSFORD - Albert L. "Chick" Patrick, 78, of 205 N. Hyland St. in East Kingsford, died Monday, Jan. 2, 2006, at Marquette General Hospital.

He was born on Sept. 23, 1927, in Iron Mountain, the son of the late Henry and Grace (Thomas) Patrick.

He was a lifelong resident of Kingsford. He served in the U.S. Army and was stationed in Germany. Chick worked for Kingsford Chemical prior to working at Khoury's for 26 years until his retirement.

He enjoyed going to his camp on Witch Lake, the Camp One Cabins, to go fishing. He also enjoyed hunting, bird watching, making venison sausage, and spending time with his dog, Sassy.

Chick married the former Darlene Davis on April 12, 1958, in Iron Mountain.

He is survived by his wife, Darlene; two daughters, Debbie Kallenbach of Niagara, Wis. and Tina (Tom Clayton) Williams of Aurora, Wis.; one sister, Ivey Jackomino of Florence, Wis.; six grandchildren, Brad Kallenbach, Nicole (Kevin) Wilson, Jason Kallenbach, Noah Williams, Jacob Williams, and Samantha Williams; a great-grandson, Dustin Williams and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Joseph and Leslie Patrick and one sister, Leona Cunard.

Visitation will be Thursday from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the Tondin-Ross & Freeman Funeral Home.

Funeral services will be Thursday at 7 p.m. at the funeral home. Rev. David Anderson will officiate.

Burial will be in the Quinnesec Cemetery. Graveside military rites will be accorded by the Uren-Cooper-Johnson American Legion Post 50.

Chick's grandchildren will serve as pallbearers.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Albert "Chick" online at www.tondinfuneralhome.com.

The Tondin-Ross and Freeman Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements.
