Alice Mae Charlevoix, 92, of Kingsford, formerly of Hardwood, MI, passed away Saturday, January 23, 2021, at Evergreen Assisted Living in Kingsford.

She graduated from Felch High School in 1948 and married Harold Charlevoix in 1949 at St. Anthony's Church in Milwaukee. Alice picked potatoes for the Cousineau Family Farm until she took a position at North Dickinson School's hot lunch program where she was employed for over 25 years. Alice loved her St. Joseph Catholic Church family where she served as an active member in many capacities. Alice took pleasure in gardening, flowers, & trips to the casino with her sisters. She picked Janet Beauchamp up for their weekly coffee clutch at the Milltown Inn where everyone was "Family." Alice always put her family first and, without fail, would lovingly tell her family members upon departure, "You be careful now."

Along with her parents and husband of 58 years, Harold, she was preceded in death by her siblings, Pearl (Ray) Davis, Leonard (Eleanor) Robinette, Melvern "Dutch" Robinette, Marshall (Ruth) Robinette, Robert Robinette, Viola (Clinton) Juneau and Shirley (Allen) Johnson; her brothers and sisters-in-law, Marie Robinette, Earl Cary, Robert (Leeann) Charlevoix, Janice (Patrick) Milligan, KayAnn Rymkos-Carl, John Rymkos, Charles Carl and Steve Charlevoix; and a granddaughter, Crystal Kay Charlevoix.

“ My sympathy in the loss of your mother. I worked at North Dickinson Community Schools a few years after high school. I would go down to the kitchen on break and enjoy warm bread and good conversation with your mom and the other cooks. She had a great sense of humor. I enjoyed talking to her many times in the years after I left there.

You're all in my thoughts and prayers. Valerie (Dixon) Lucas
