“ Dear Schultz Family,
Many years have passed since I first worked for Alice. She was my first client, and the best I ever had! I know the company would say, not to become attached, but that at times was impossible. Alice welcomed me warmly, we got to know each other, and she shared many of her recipes with me. Which I have and share now with my own bunch. She was even sweet enough to call me several times when she went into the nursing home. My only regret now is not being able to share pictures of Grandchildren that we now have of our own. I lost my own mother just a little over a year now, and she was able to meet and hold her oldest Great Grandchild. But many more have come since then, and how I wish there were days we could have shared joys of them together. Tell her Great Grandkids, I thought their Gram's was a special lady! Always a lady first! She will be missed.

My thoughts are with you all that I got to meet as I worked for her.
Your in my prayers.

Sincerely,
Pat St. John
