

Allan Carlson

November 13, 2007

QUINNESEC - Allan Lee Carlson, 72, of Lake Antoine Road in Quinnesec, passed away Tuesday, Nov. 13, 2007, at Maryhill Manor in Niagara, Wis.

Allan was born Sept. 25, 1935, in Iron Mountain, the son of Charles and Elizabeth (LaLonde) Carlson.

He attended Kingsford High School and worked many years, retiring from the Hanna Mining Co.

Allan enjoyed visiting with friends and family, playing cards, and enjoying the outdoors. He was a wonderful father and will be dearly missed by Terry Jo.

He is survived by one daughter, Terry Jo (Tom) Vanvick of Arizona; a brother, Eldon Carlson of Wells; many nephews and nieces and great-nephews and great-nieces; and a good friend and neighbor, Joe (Jean) Fornetti.

Allan was preceded in death by his parents; his son, David A. Carlson; a brother, Ellsworth Carlson and a sister, Edith "Toots" (Jerome) Beaulier.

Per Allan's request, no public services will be held.

Private graveside services will be held at Cemetery Park in Iron Mountain at later date.

Special thanks to nephews and caregivers, Donald "Butch" Carlson and Jerome Beaulier.

Condolences to the family of Allan Carlson may be expressed online at [www.e rnashfuneralhomes.com](http://www.e rnashfuneralhomes.com).

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon and Nash Funeral Home with arrangements.

Tribute Wall

GM

“ I have known Allan for many, many years (my sister-in-law is David and Terry Jo's mother) and he was a super guy. I know that he loved his son and daughter very much and had many plans with David which didn't materialize as they had planned. He is with him now and I'm sure they are happy together. My symphathy to Terry Jo, his family and all his friends.

Greta Michaud - November 20, 2007 at 12:00 AM