“ Shelly,

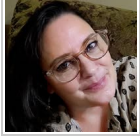

I never met your mom, but as soon as I saw her picture today, I saw the wonderful features you carry so beautifully from your mom. I send you my love, prayers, and sympathy. Max Lacado once said, “The hand you have held for so many years is now being held by the One we are all waiting to see.” May your mom rest in the arms of our heavenly Father. Joanie ❤️

“ Angie how far back we go. When I was a kid, my girlfriend had a bike, and I did not. You were just dating Chuck then. I remember you lending me your bike days on end so we could ride from one town to the next. Never did you ask where I was going or tell me when to bring it back. I loved you from that moment. I know my brother loved you til his very last breath. You gave mom and dad their first grandchildren and me my nieces whom I love dearly. Knowing you are at last home, healthy and with all those that love you and you love gives me peace in my heart. You raised an incredible family and will never be forgotten.

“ The Vines Family became like my second family when Michele, and I were in school. Angie let me stay over when I wanted, fed me and always made me feel like part of the family. ”
