“ I met Tony as a child. Our family went to visit Shaun and once. Tony was an extremely nice an caring person. He showed us kids how to skin a rabbit. Needless to say we had rabbit stew. My mother Bertina sends her condolences to his loving family, as do my siblings and myself.

“ Best brother and friend that I, as his sister could have. Kind, generous, forgiving, a true believer in the Lord. When he married Jan, who I have always been so thankful for as she really was his soulmate. his life blossomed! Wonderful father and grandfather. Faithful to our Lord in all that he did. I will miss him terribly and will look forward to seeing him in Eternal Life. Much love to Jan, Shawn, Ben, Craig and their families.

“ Where to begin...so many wonderful memories of time spent with Tony and Jan. Tony was so much fun to be around, we never knew what to expect, yet he was always a hard worker, generous with His time and resources, and bold to speak of his Lord. We loved him and look forward to seeing him again.
