“ To the family of Arlene. It has been a very long time since I have seen or spoken to any of you but I send you condolences to you and please know that I will uphold you in my prayers. Remember to that as Christians we grieve not as those that have no hope, but yet we do grieve the loss of a loved one. He is risen and one day we will all be re-united with Him and our loved ones. I will always remember our days together in Esky and at Calvary Baptist in Escanaba. God Bless each of you.

“ Iris & Jesse, I was sad to read in the newspaper that Arlene passed away. I know you both loved her a lot and that she also loved both of you. Jesse, you were her pride and joy. Arlene's beautiful shy smile and wonderful way with words - those are the things that I'll remember most about her. The little notes she wrote in her cards were always special to me. My thoughts and prayers are with both of you. May God's peace that surpasses understanding fill both of you.

“ Jesse, Iris and family; I'm deeply saddend for the loss of your mother and sister. We had lost touch with each other but, prior to that we were very close. She was there for me in a very positive way when I first began my recovery. She had a great sense of humor and I will always remember the laughs we shared. We were pregnant at the same time, we used to set up our doctors appointments so that we could go to them together. We used to joke that we were having our babies on the buddy system. Jesse your mom loved you very much and wanted the very best for you. You are all very much in my thoughts and in my prayers.

“ Iris and Jesse:
I am so sorry for the loss of your sister and mother. Arlene was truly a wonderful, gifted and intelligent, strong woman. Knowing her - in her sickness and health - has had a tremendous impact on my life. I will always remember her as a kind and loving person that took me under her wing when I was a lost and confused teenager. I lost touch with her these past four years and feel the deepest loss from her passing. I'm so sorry I never got to say good-bye. I wish you all th best and God's love in comforting you at this time.
