“ I lived upstairs in the same apartment building that Barb and Joe lived in on Woodward Street in Iron Mountain, MI back in 1993. Barb and Joe lived downstairs and were my friends from the moment I moved in. I was new to the town and had just gotten married. My husband was still living in Minnesota at the time and was still looking for a job in Michigan. Barb and Joe took me in like a daughter/granddaughter. I loved coming downstairs and visiting them along with Ollie, the black cat. I missed them so much when they moved to the trailer. I moved back to Minneapolis in 1995 and have not been back to MI since. I will always remember Barb's laugh and her incredible sense of humor. I have wondered why I hadn't heard from her in such a long time, and I am saddened to hear of her passing. My husband, age 40, also died recently and I can only imagine the loneliness she had experienced being away from Joe for so long. They are together now and forever in peace. God bless you Joe and Barb. I will miss you both. Love, Julie Schmidt

“ So sorry to hear of Barbs passing. She was a wonderful asset to the Dialysis Unit, adding HUMOR to the difficult challenge of sitting in a chair, hooked to a machine, 4 hours a day, 3 days a week. Originally Barb volunteered in our Dept to assist the nursing staff with tasks, but quickly became a diversion for the patients. She took a personal interest in each patient, and knew who would appreciate her jokes, and who just needed someone to talk to. Truly a wonderful person, and I am privileged to have had her cross my path in this journey through life.
