“ I have fond memories of Barry from when he was a cop and I was a teenager. He wasn't too far from my age at the time so it was kind of neat knowing a law officer that one could relate to. He was a good man. My condolences to his family.

“ Jerry, it's been years since we have connected, but please know that I have thought about you often - especially now with the passing of your brother Barry. I can't imagine losing my brother this early but I guess it is all part of a bigger story, the chapters of which will make more sense and bring more peace to us with the passage of time. God Bless.
