“ I was given the opportunity to get to know Becky in 2007, she was my student for CTU Online. I worked with her for her Associates and Bachelors degree. I just found this information out today. She was an amazing woman. Even though i never met her face to face i always enjoyed our converstaions. She made me smile every time we talked. Im very sorry for your loss, she would always talk good things about her family and the kids she cared for on a daily basis. My prayers go out to you and your family.

“ Jeff and family, Brenda and I would like to express our sorrow for the loss of your wife/mother. I will always remember the smiles she always had while she was out in the yard when we were neighbors and when I would be checking on our apartment next door. She was truly an inspiring person to be near. May the lord help you find peace in all she has done for you in the past and leave you with many great memories to share in the future.

“ Jeff, Heather, Caitlyn and Elyssa; We remember how nice it was to move to Iron Mountain 17 years ago and have you as our neighbors. Those smiling freckled faces made our days fly by with funny giggles. Becky was always willing to help-anyone. Now, your grandma, Carol, lives in your old house. We see her often. She always told us how busy Becky was with her daycare and how much she enjoyed the children. She was such a loving giving person. We will miss her. Dick, Sharon, Ross, Ryan, Robin Neubauer

“ Jeff, we can only imagine the grief you are experiencing and do hurt for you. We have been priviledged to experience Becky's gracious behavior and beautiful voice in worship for only a short time, and can sense how deeply her absence in the body will be felt.

We are fervently praying for God's grace and strength to sustain you through your grieve.

Very sincerely,

“ Praying for you and your family. Even though we didn't get to see Becky and your entire family very often, she was always so nice and I remember her fondly. I pray you can find some peace at this very difficult time. Losing someone close to you is very hard, almost unbearable at times. But know you have lots of friends and family there to help you through it.

“ Jeff, Family, and Scott,

Our hearts beat especially hard today and our knees are bent in prayer for strength and peace.

Becky is perfect and healthy today as she is in the presence of Jesus. So we the Ives Family make a promise to those she left behind, to pray every day for Jeff, the girls, and Scott, especially during this holiday season.

"Whenever you are weak, therefore, I am strong"--Jesus

You are loved.

“ Jeff, I too lost my spouse after being married 18 years. I had 2 young girls at the time. I'm not going to tell you that everything will be okay, I'm going to tell you that "things will be different" but you will survive. It is one of the hardest things that I have ever had to go through, but I've made it, my girls have made it and my husband would be proud of me, for not giving up and continuing to be a good parent. My prayers are with you and be strong.

“ Our family sends deepest sympathy to all of you. We loved Becky who I believe God sent to us to watch out for and help shape our youngest daughter, Brenna, in her daycare. There was so much love and positive modeling in that home for her. We thought of it more like our daughters second home then anything. You are all in my prayers for peace and strength. Becky will be missed by us all. Love, Ann, Keith, Alex and Brenna
