

Benny Essendrup

May 23, 2008

IRON MOUNTAIN - Benny F. Essendrup, 69, of Iron Mountain, died Friday, May 23, 2008, at ManorCare Health Services in Kingsford.

He was born in Sitka, Alaska, the son of the late Barney and Elizabeth Essendrup. Ben was born and raised in Sitka with his sisters, Bonny and Linda and his brother, Bernard. He graduated from Sitka High School.

Ben joined the U.S. Army in 1962, where he was a sharpshooter. He was discharged in 1965.

Ben worked for Alaska Lumber and Pulp Co. in Sitka. He was also the assistant fire chief for the Sitka fire department for more than 20 years. When the Champion Mill opened in Quinnesec, he was transferred here to work as the control room operator, retiring in 2003.

Ben was a very active man who always liked to try new adventures. A man of many hobbies, he was a private pilot who enjoyed wood carving, leather working, and carpentry. He was a good hearted man.

Benny was a member of the Masons, the Shriners, the Moose Lodge, and many veterans organizations. He really enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Ben is survived by two daughters, Kathy (Ron) Mathews of Sitka and Colette (Jeff) Rochon of Niagara, Wis.; one son, Todd (Sandie) Essendrup of Iron Mountain; adopted daughter JoEllen Basso of Loretto; nine grandchildren, Audreanna, Lucas, Jeffrey, Tosha, Joshua, Brenton, Kelsey, Eric, and Amber; adopted grandsons Traveler and Gunnar and three great-grandchildren.

Private family services will be held.

Burial will be in Alaska.

Condolences to the family of Benny Essendrup can be expressed online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the arrangements.

“ To Benny's Family,

Both my wife Carol Koschman and myself have wonderful memories of Benny and his 57 Thunderbird growing up in Sitka. I lived with Benny's family one school year in Sitka (1959) and enjoyed every moment. Our hearts go out to Bonny, Bernard, Linda, and the rest of the family. Benny will always remain a very fond memory in our hearts for just being Benny.
