“ I have many wonderful memories of Bertha just by growing up in Foster City. She was a quiet lady but her gentle personality was noticed. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

“ So sorry to hear of Bertha passing away. It was a joy to get to know her. I will miss visiting her at Hulst Manor and at Manor care. I enjoyed our times together visiting and eating out together with Viola Carlson, Joyce Harteau, Blanche, Patsy, and Sheila. But most of all she enjoyed having the Bible, Daily Bread devotional read. and a prayer with her. She shared a Prayer with me that she had written and put in her Bible. It showed she trusted Christ as her Savior and enjoying that promise of eternal life in Heaven. So sad but glad she finally has no more sorrow or pain.
