“ I am sure Bertha and Harold have had a great reunion in heaven. I always remember the Christmas holidays with the Peterson family and all of us kids.
I only remember one time going to Kingsford with mom and dad (and Pam) to visit them, but it was a nice comfortable house.
Whenever we had a funeral or a wedding, Aunt Bertha and Uncle Harold were always there, and the memories of that faithfulness and solid family are great to have. Mom always talked about how much she liked Bertha. It is a sad day for the family, but a happy one for her. I was amazed that the last card I received from her was such clear, beautiful handwriting and her mind was so good. You all have my condolences and I'm sorry I won't meet you to tell you in person, but she was very special. Love to all Judy Peterson Gaspar

“ I recognized Mrs Holmquist at the nursing home about a year ago and we talked of times shared at Trinity Methodist when I was younger and my mother and she were involved with WSCS. A lovely lady. My sympathy to her family. I knew Melanie.
