“ I visited aunt Bertha with my grandmother Helen. Those two could keep you laughing and interested in their stories for hours. Aunt Bertha always reminded me so much of grandma Helen. When I was older, when my husband and family would go through Iron Mountain, we would stop in for a while to say hello. We were always greeted with a kiss and a big smile even tho we stopped in unexpectedly. She was a wonderful, thoughtful, caring person who will be missed by all. My mom and dad, Frank & Marcy, were thankful that they got to see aunt Bertha not long before she passed.
