“ Bessie Warren was a great gal. She had such vitality and energy. I can't imagine that she ever wasted a single minute. She's probaby teaching the angels how to weave and crochet. I still have many of her potholders and placemats and will always treasure them. When my daughters were small children, they each received a clown doll that Bessie made. It was the only doll Eileen ever played with. We still have two white bears that she made for my girls. I remember fondly seeing her at my mother's house (Elaine Stoor) where coffee time was always so much fun with Bessie there.

“ Please forgive the lateness of this note, as I just received the Nov 19th edition of the Iron County Reporter today, Dec 1st. Bessie was a dear and long-time friend of my mother Elaine Stoor, and I have many fond memories of her daily visits to our family home and the lively cribbage games that were always a part of her visit. I still have a throw rug made by her loving hands. She was an interesting lady, and I wish I could have been half as successful at deer hunting as she was!

*Warmest regards,
Kurt Stoor
