“ I knew Betty a little when she was still a Poad and always felt she was a Christian who went to the northside Methodist Church. In later years we square danced with the Broullire's. She was always a wonderful happy and gracious lady who loved the Lord she served so well.

Our sympathy and prayers.

“ I met Betty through her and her daughter coming and playing piano for us at Family Ties Adult Center. She always had a smile and a kind word. We enjoyed her laugh and dancing. She will be sadly missed.
