“ My love, prayers and deep sympathy to Betty's children, grandchildren and all who loved her. Besides being a good mother, grandmother and wife, I remember her as being a willing mother for her daughter Sue's Campfire Girls Troop. She also supported her husband Jack's community efforts to make things better in the Community and in the Dickinson County Golden K Club. She is already being welcomed into her Heavenly Home already prepared for her. God's comforting Love be with all her family. Keeping you in prayer.
