“ I recall being able to run down to the Corcoran's house and Bonnie would spoil my sisters and me like we were her own kids. We grew up neighbors and carry fond memories of her and the big house on East 'C' Street.

My mom passed away 2 years ago, so I can only surmise the laughter going on in heaven at this time as two old neighbors, now sweet angels laugh together.

I hope you are at peace knowing your mother was a gem in this treasure box of life. Both my sisters Mary Ellen and Patti send warm regards as well. Our thoughts are with you all. Rest in peace Mrs. Corcoran, rest in peace. XXOO
