“ Yes... hard working and so generous. Remember she loved to go to Dishaw camp. She would remember Floyd and Louise on their birthday with a cake. That was a treat for us all. RIP sweet cousin. May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God RIP. Eternal rest grant unto them oh Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. Amen!

“ Bonnie, funny, sweet, hard working, tell it like it is sort of woman..... and kind, very kind. Her home at Christmas looked like ShopKo from a year dept on crack. Every book and cranny was beautifully decirated, and her kitchen was filled with the most beautifully decirated cookies.

Once I walked in her kitchen during the holidays noticing all the cookies all over the long counter in the table and I said oh you have been so busy look at these beautiful cookies! And she came back with ya looks like the Pillsbury Doughboy blew up in here doesn't it? Always one for a good laugh. She sure loved her kids, just one super great lady. I'm sure stories have her pasties will live on in this area forever, I am the proud owner of a couple of her beautiful afghans..... she was a hard worker a super lady a funny person good mom, and now I believe she is fully restored with perfect health in heaven with those that she has missed for so long. Sad thing is is there's going to be so many that miss her, you just don't meet too many people like her.

Fly with the angels Bonnie, thank you for all the laughs, I'm glad you liked my dad's turkey, your name came up at our Thanksgiving table every year since..... and we repeated the story of how thrilled you were, with that turkey. YOU made my Dads Thanksgiving that year..... and how he loved to talk about it! ThankYOU for all the kindness you showed me, thank you for Lori, thankyou for the laughs..... untill we meet again.

“ MY memories of Bonnie are so many..starting with you were always welcome no matter what time of day or night and the coffee pot was always on. Thru the years going to Bonnies was like going home and it always was so comfortable and welcoming. Growing up in that house we will always remember. Her cookie jar was always full and you always looked to see what was around that she had baked, it was always special.

Bonnie helped raise myself and my sister Sharyl after my mom died (Geraldine) I was 9 mos. and Sharyl was 4. Holidays were like a winter wonderland for all to enjoy..food was plenty she could make a feast out of hardly nothing. Family get togethers were awesome and always fun and she made every event very special. She made me feel wanted and that I was apart of a family..She was like a mom to us and the only time that I felt close to my mom was when I was at her home (Family Home) grandpa and grandma with Roger, Jaqualine (with Cindy, Michael, and Pam) Geraldine (with Sharyl and Debbie) and then Bonnie (with Lisa, Lori, Brenda and Becky) and spouses we all lived at this home at one time or another as did countless others. SHE MADE IT HOME FOR ALL WHO ENTERED HER DOOR.

I hope she is having a Family Reunion in Heaven right now with all who haved passed before her and smiling and laughing. She will watch over all who will miss her very much. May she rest in peace and have forgotten all the pain and be pain Free.

“ Whenever I was up North at my cabin near Fence, WI , I was always invited in to her Home for supper (hopefully a pasty), and a coffee, the pot was always on. She had a lot of patience, just to see her work on some of hundreds of puzzles she put together later in life !!! Unreal !!! You could never be able to count the pasties she made, Afghan blankets and “baby blankets” she crocheted, every kind of cakes she baked and decorated, Holiday meals she prepared (enough for anybody that showed up with leftovers), pots of coffee brewed, plus clean up the whole mess left by everyone, and only then stopping to smoke a “Chesterfield” when everything was done !!! Just remember to say a prayer for all the ones she made you or your family a lot happier and richer for the things she shared with YOU !!! Debbie (Auntie Bonnie’s niece, she help raise), hubby Jack. God Bless her soul !!! AMEN.

Whoops !!! I made a mistake, she smoked “Pall Mall” cigs, and not “Chesterfield”cigs. I also forgot to mention all the different Christmas candies and cookies she handmade !!! Plus I know I’m forgetting other personal things she shared with ones that were around her like close friend (Pat Furno) and her other niece (Sharyl DeVet). They could probably write a GOOD book and all the interesting stories she shared !!! May she never be forgotten in prayers by ALL !!!

“ I remember for a short while living with Grandpa and Bonnie, Debbie & Sharyl, 204 Quincy still in my brain/my blood! Bonnie had a big bedroom with a zillion dolls behind a case, all real special. She decorated every holiday, and that home always felt special. I remember Bonnie making pasties and making the best Christmas cookies ever. I remember always sitting in the kitchen, having a cup of coffee which was the beginning of everything. I remember her best laugh was when she was with her friend Pat. I went to the cemetery to visit my mom Tuesday after I heard the last of their family generation transitioned, I left with the inspired thought that there's a freedom in death that can be beautiful if one is ready to accept that.

*My heart and blessings are with the family~
