“ I'm just heartbroken 💔 Bradd was like a big brother to me always there in need and just the most loving kind of person to just stop by just to say hello, never wanting anything from anyone but a smile and good conversation. Such a faithful Christian and I know god desperately needed an Angel to take Bradd home so soon. My heart aches for his love of his life Dawn and beautiful sweet daughter Abbey who was the image of her father not only with her looks but the same kind soul. Dave is sure going to miss his brother from another mother and the four of us were just getting started ☐. Don't worry Bradd, Dave will make sure we have a guest house out west when we all retire for Dawn to come live with us and we know you will be with us. Love you Bradd 💔

For over 35 years Bradd has been a very close friend. From golfing, bowling, a little fishing, and just generally helping each other out; this man was a joy to be around. Too many good times to remember. I can say that I am a better person for having him as a great friend. He will be missed! May God bless Dawn, Abbey, and the families at this difficult time.
