“ Dear Bruno, I use to write you every Christmas season since I was 11 years old. Since the day I met you for the first time, when you visited your relatives of Creazzo, in ITALY. Due the distance, we met you not much time but, here, all your cousins have loved you from immediately. You was so nice with everybody, so funny with your old italian language,so generous, so proud to be italian too!
Today, here in Creazzo we are praying at the funeral of my aunt Rita, the wife of your first cousin Lino. You used to stay in their house when you came in Italy. On 8th December, my mam Armida and my father Gaetano that are both sick, asked me information about you. I replied them that I should try to phone you on next Christmas day. Only two days ago I have been informed that you are pass away.
I think that we are so far but, in this moment is like if you and aunt Rita are walking in the same part of the sky.
I hope that from there you can support all us.....
I am so sad to state that this is my latest letter to you, after 29 years.
Bruno, You will be always in my heart.
Also, my husband, my sons, my brothers and my parents say you hallo.
We send our love to all your big family.
Ciao. Angie

“ I was very sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Maule, who was one of the finest teachers I had at Norway High School. He was always willing to listen, encourage, and help a student whenever necessary. I send my deepest sympathies to the family.

“ I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Maule, one of my favorite teachers. He was such a dedicated teacher, and made learning interesting. He was a guest at our 40th high school reunion a couple years ago, and it was such a delight to see him and how sharp he still was Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ After reading about Mr. Maule's times and accomplishments, I realized they revealed much about his approach to life and those he met. He was an expemplary citizen-patriot who shared his knowledge with his Norway High School students (such as me, now 26 years past). Best wishes to Mr. Maule's family in working through your grief and be heartened that many were positively touched by his influence. I imagine him now chatting up the deities, cracking them up with his "Jiminy Crickets" and "anaways" phrases, and trying convince them that Kingsford needs even more of their attention.

“ I am very sorry to hear of Bruno's passing away. He and I competed on the basketball courts while we were in high school and following WWII.
(Channing vs Hermansville)
He was a great athlete. and a fine competitor.
We also crossed paths briefly on a troop ship coming from the Pacific islands in 1944.
But have had little contact with each other the past 20-30 years due to my moving from the U.P.
