“ Dear Lindholm Family,
My sinchere sympathy to all of you. I saw your father for a couple of minutes when I was in IM for a week two summers ago. Gary and I were at the Vicenzi house; your father hadn't seen me in something like 10 to 15 years, he was riding a lawn mower. He could not have been nicer, he took up conversation with me as if I had seen him regularly. You all had a very nice dad... I live in Calif., and have been teaching in San Francisco, for the last 15 years. John and Tim, I often think of those great years when we were growing up. What a time, those were.

Thinking of you all. Sincerely, Ron

“ SO sorry to hear that Carl had passed away. I took care of him for a while at Oakcrest. He always had a story to tell me when I would see him. He was very fun loving. My thoughts and prayers are with the whole family at this time.
