"Charles Bruette"

CHANNING - Charles W. "Chum" Bruette, 72, of 820 Railroad, M-95 in Channing, died Friday, May, May 16, 2003, at Dickinson County Memorial Hospital in Iron Mountain.

He was born Sept. 16, 1930, in Sagola, son of the late Warner and Esther (McGregor) Bruette. He was a lifelong resident of the Channing area and worked as a laborer for Local Union 1329 for many years.

Chum enjoyed hunting and fishing for all species for all seasons. He also enjoyed four-wheeling, snowmobiling and going to camp with friends. He was an excellent gardener and was thought to have about the best gardens in the Channing area. He was an avid Packer fan and Yankees fan and was the voice of the Channing Railroaders baseball team for many years. He was a member of Local 1329 for nearly 35 years.

Chum was preceded in death by two grandsons, Christopher Coonrod and Cole Bruette.

He is survived by his son, Charles "Chum" II (Lisa) Bruette of Channing and a daughter, Kara Coonrod of Mansfield Township; a sister, Lorraine (Robert "Susie") Dal Santo of Channing; eight grandchildren, Ean (Asha) Bruette, Michael, Danielle, Rebecca and Elizabeth Coonrod, and Emily, Matthew and Christina Bruette; and aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Visitation will be held Friday from 5 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. at the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home in Iron Mountain. Funeral services will be held Friday at 6:30 p.m. at the funeral home. Rev. Michael March will officiate.
