

Charles J. "Chuck" Cox II

December 31, 1952 - April 13, 2014

Charles J. "Chuck" Cox II, 61 of Iron Mountain, passed away Sunday, April 13, 2014 at his home. He was born on Dec. 31, 1952 in Williams, AZ, the son of Charles and LaVone (Thompson) Cox.

Chuck married Cinde Rudrud on June 10, 1973 in Tucson, AZ. The couple enjoyed forty years of marriage. They moved from their longtime home in Arizona to Iron Mountain five years ago.

Before retiring, Chuck was a superintendent for a custom home builder. He enjoyed fishing and spending time at camp with his family and friends. He also enjoyed playing the guitar, harmonica and avidly followed the news and weather.

He is survived by his beloved wife Cinde and daughter Andi of Iron Mountain, his mother LaVone Cox of Tucson, his sister Louise Bernstein of Tucson, nieces Anna and Jessie and their families and many aunts, uncles, and cousins. Chuck also leaves behind his companion and best friend, his white lab, Cassie.

A memorial service will be held on Sat. May 31 at 11:00 am at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Kingsford. Branch President Les Nishida will preside.

Condolences to the family of Charles J. "Chuck" Cox II can be expressed online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home with the arrangements.

“Where do I begin as there is so much to say about my cousin Chuck, aka Chuckie, Skeeter. His love for the north woods was so great that he and his family eventually move there from AZ. Growing up, we learned so much from our grandparents about the north woods, life and love that one can't help but want to spend your life there. He was a avid fisherman (he lost many poles due to "the big one") that he'd spend countless hours on the lake and almost always come in with a mess of fish. Years ago, we were fishing late at night and he ran out of gas, we laughed and laughed. While enjoying the star filled sky, he said "hey Bob, you can see the lights of Marquette". Well, it wasn't Marquette but the Northern Lights. He'd never seen them and he was just amazed at the beauty of them. We had so many adventures, whether it was ATV'ing, hunting, fishing working on the road or our trips to Republic, who will I shoot bottle rockets at now? The list goes on and on. Our "group" won't be the same without you my friend. Your laughter, smile and sense of humor was infectious. What a great person you were and you will be truly missed. I love you Chuck now go catch that "big one"!

“Chuckie my dear sweet cousin. I will always remember you. I love you so much and my heart is broken. I will cherish all my memories and never ever forget you. The last trip we took together was to San Carlos, Mexico. We were the designated cocoon pourers, we had so much fun in the back seat and so many many laughs. Your laughter still rings in my ears and your smile always made me smile even through the phone I could feel and see it. Forever in my heart Chuckie, how I love you and will miss you. It's just to soon and I don't understand. oxoxoxox”
