“ God has called one of his dearest angels home. Her memories left behind for her family and friends will not be forgotten, they will be treasures they keep close to their hearts. Charlotte will be looking after those left behind, especially Linda and Mary Beth, until they will join her in her heavenly home. Our prayers are that you find peace in knowing that she always knew she was loved! Love and prayers from Dawn and Fuzzy.

“ To the family of Charlotte Nelson Jedda. I have many fond memories of Charlotte and her daughters. A kind loving woman, mother and Christian. Charlotte and her family left a life time of great memories for me as a member of the Church of Christ, Kingsford, Michigan. I am honored to have known Charlotte and her daughters. May God comfort her family as they morn her passing. May God grant Charlotte eternal rest. Until we meet again. Love a friend in Christ, Randy Hicks

“ Very sorry for your loss. We are friends of Eileen S and she has talked so highly of Aunt Charlotte as long as I have known her. She sounded like a wonderful woman. Glad you had so many good years with her and she is now on her next adventure in Eternal Heaven.
Sincerely
Chris and Diane Schoenherr
