“ To Chris'sfamily...Where to start. The heartaches that this family has had to endure lately....I always felt like a small part of this family, when i was little my father was sherrif, and i played with Karen alot, and always looked up at her BEAUTIFUL sister Chris...she was so beautiful and she tought us how to do the twist at a very young age. she would laugh at karen and !!!!Her parents were the nicest I have ever met.And her younger sisters,Norma and Candy, were always there for us to bother and play with.Chris would have all these young girls hanging around watcing her get ready for something that, she was doing for school, and we were wondering how she could stay so busy. Her mom was the best donut maker, I think I knew when she was cooking , because it wasn't long after they were done I was at there door, and they would all laugh.My mom was a wonderful cook also, so I sure got my share of sweets.When sweet Karen passed and then her mom, it hit hard for everyone.god is watching over Mr.Stuart and Doug,and John and the grandchildren and her children, THERE ARE MANY ANGELS OVER THEM...Our prayers go out to your whole family, and I can't say enough to tell you how lucky I feel to have known them all. Love , Maureen(Julian)Pasten and my husband Chuck

“ To Doug and all the family members of Chris and her father,Bruce: So many memories, so few words. I have always loved Chris and enjoyed the times we had growing up together. Although I have been away since graduation Chris and I exchanged a few letters now and then and I was always happy to hear from her. I am deeply saddened of her passing and the thought that I will not see her again in this life. However, I will never forget her. Please accept my deepest sympathy in your loss. Marie Helms (Kish)

“*Doug and families,
We were saddened to hear of Chris' death. We have fond memories of visiting all of you on our trips to the UP. The last time we were visiting she brought a specially made cake for the Berquist family. We always appreciated the caring she extended to our family. God's peace!*

“ Dear Chris's family and loved ones, Chris's Iron Mountain High School class had our 40th reunion on the 17th & 18th of this month. We were all saddened to hear of her leaving us on earth to live in a different way. Her spirit was with us all and prayers were shared by those at the reunion to speed her journey to peace. Next to her photo we placed a copy of this poem that was written by Jean Pomeroy February, 2003.

A MEMORY

*A memory can bring a tear,
Or bring a twinkle to your eye.
It shines within its own reflection
Hidden in some day gone by.*

*A memory can touch your dreams,
Awakening a world apart.
It takes the past to where you are
And leaves itself within your heart.*

*A precious moment waits inside,
A gift to cherish endlessly.
It's close as any recollection
Found within love's memory.*

Please accept deepest sympathy from all her classmates. Her memory will live with us always. Respectfully, Iron Mountain High School Class of 1967

“ To Chris's family--It will never be the same, going to the bank and not seeing Chris there with a great big smile and always asking how the family was and "how is Dayna (my daughter used to ride horses with her) and where is she now and tell her I said hello!!" There's some people you remember and then there are some people that you never forget and Chris is at the top of that list. I will always remember that incredible smile and bubbly personality!!

“ To Chris's entire family.....of all my visits to FNB over the years, ironically last Thursday I talked to Chris for more than 15 minutes. We talked of our grandkids and how they were such a blessing. What an upbeat, smiley person she was! My thoughts and prayers are with you all in your loss. Jane (Kauper) Juchemich

“ To Chris' Family. Chris was a friend to me way back in grade school. Then I rediscovered her one day driving through her lane at the FNB. What a delightful surprise. There was always time for us to chat about our dogs, their training, showing, and antics. We even shared an obedience class together. What fun she was. As I read through the condolences already listed, I can see that Chris touched everyone the way she touched me with her uplifting energy and her ever present big smile. I'm going to miss her.

Do ya think she's talked Christs ear off yet? Naw, He's used to it after all He made her Perfect just the way she is, & now she's leaning over that bannister cheering us on just not quite understanding our tears & how much we miss her.

“ Dear Doug & family,
I was shocked, and saddened, to hear of the death of Chris. I have known Chris for many years, and I will miss her friendly smile and sweet personality. We always talked about going for coffee, and laughed about the fact that we rarely found the time to do so. You and your entire family are in my prayers during this very difficult time. I know that Chris is in a much better place and will live on in the memory of all who knew and loved her.

“ To Doug and family, My deepest sympathy at the loss of Chris. I was shocked to hear of her passing. We wonder at God's timing, she was too young, so good, and loved by all who knew her; why take her from us so soon? I don't have the right words to say to ease your pain and deep sense of loss, only God can fill the emptiness Chris's passing has left. May you lean heavily on Him at this time and feel His presence and comfort. I will keep you and the family in my prayers. Kitty Helwig
