

Christine M. Dykema

December 24, 1951 - August 10, 2025

Christine M. Dykema, 73, of Florence, passed away on Sunday August 10, 2025 at Florence Health Services in Florence, WI.

Christine was born on December 24, 1951 in Traverse City, MI daughter of James and Edith (Haywood) Robbins. Much of her life was spent in the Muskegon, MI area until she relocated to the Upper Peninsula in 2015.

Christine had an “Open Door” policy at her home and was known to take in strays of every kind. She enjoyed cooking and canning and made friends with everyone she met.

Left to cherish her memory are her daughter; Amy (Patrick) Dinkins of Republic, stepsons; James (Kelly) Dykema and Daniel (Jerrica Scott-Witham Warner) Dykema, grandchildren; Jessi Dinkins, Hannah Dinkins, Lindsey (Jeff) Henderson and Kayla Dykema, great grandchildren; Spencer Nicole, Rylynn Jean Marie, and Sawyer Patrick Anthony, brother; James “Ed” (Sandy) Robbins, Jr. and brother-in-law; Larry Armstrong, as well as numerous other extended family members and friends too numerous to mention all by name.

In addition to her parents, Christine was preceded in death by a very special sister, Lisa Kay Armstrong.

Details are pending and will be announced at a later date.

Condolences to the family of Christine M. Dykema may be expressed online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the arrangements.

“ I've known Sis for what seems like a million years, I really don't remember not knowing her and the whole family. Her house was always the place to be because there was always something going on and food was always on stove for a spontaneous gathering. She was always big smiles, giggling always handing out hugs. She's going to missed by everyone that has ever her. Fly high Sis. We love you
