December 20, 1929 - September 6, 2023

Clarice “LeNore” Kosovec, 93, of Kingsford passed away on Wednesday, Sept. 6, 2023, at Marshfield Medical Center – Dickinson.

She was born in Iron Mountain on Dec. 20, 1929, daughter of the late Edwin and Clarice (Corrigan) Olsen. LeNore was a life-long member of St. Mary Queen of Peace Parish. In 1950, she and John were united in marriage sharing 54 years together before John preceded her in death in 2004. LeNore spent much of her time volunteering all over the community including for the local hospitals, many of the nursing homes, the library, parish and Knights of Columbus events, and she was particularly fond of her time spent in Steve Cavalieri’s special education class. She was a hard worker, taking many positions over the years but ultimately retiring from her career with Ball and Christy Furniture. LeNore will also be remembered for her creative side, shining through not just in her music but also through her poetry and painting.

“ To all of LeNore's family my sincere and deep sympathy in your loss. Our communities have also lost this great gal who was kind and generous to everyone she knew. i was fortunate to know her through her good friend , my sister Marge Nelson, since my teen years. It was always fun to have coffee withn her at Marge's and i well remember she and John together. May her faith in a loving lord give you comfort in knowing jesus is holdingn the door wide open to welcome LeNore home where He already has a place for her. Keeping you in prayer.
