“ I have known Cody since were kids. He always had a great send of humor. We lost contact for many years but about a year ago I ran into him in Ishpeming. I gave him a ride back to Iron Mountain. Over the next year I saw him several more times. I'm very thankful to have had the short amount of time I did. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Cody, we will miss you. Rest easy Buddy. 💙

“ Cody was a Great person! I will miss him tremendously. I believe Cody would be saddened to not have his other pride and joy mentioned, his other adopted daughter, Jaycee's sister, Jayden, or his love, Jackie! They were the single three most important people to him. Cody told me this on several occasions. I will remember Cody as, A Great friend, and most importantly as, A Great Father to his two daughters! RIP, My Friend.

When a mother loses a child everything shuts down, including her memory. Writing an obituary for a child is one of the most difficult things for a mother to do. Trying to remember all the friends and family is not easy. You do the best you can under the circumstances. Not being mentioned in an obituary should not be taken personally, after all the obituary is about the person who has passed not the people he left behind. Cody was my nephew who I loved dearly. I watched him struggle all his life, fought his way out many times, only to lose all hope in the end. He was a great man who loved all children he came in contact with. The kids are what kept Cody going. Kids give unconditional love with no demands or ultimatums, that is not so true with adults. R.I.P. Cody, I love you with all my heart.
