

Corlinda M. Newingham

August 4, 1920 - December 17, 2021

Corlinda Mary “Corky” Newingham, 101, of Aurora, WI, passed away on Friday, December 17, 2021, after falling and fracturing her hip at The Bay at Nu Roc Health and Rehabilitation Center in Laona, WI. She had been a resident there since March, 2021.

Corky was born in Iron Mountain, MI, on August 4, 1920, in the family home on Fifth Street on the northside of Iron Mountain, to Jacob and Julia (Pataconi) Andreoli, immigrants of Pergola, Italy. She was one of eight children and is the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Corky graduated from Iron Mountain High School in 1938, being one of the top students in her class. She was the only one in her family to graduate from high school, and she was very proud of that. After high school she worked for the mayor of Iron Mountain at the city offices for a couple of years as his secretary.

She met her future husband, Virgil J. Newingham, at a dance hall on the northside of Iron Mountain. They were married on August 14, 1940, at the courthouse in Iron Mountain. They lived in Dunbar, WI, Iron Mountain and finally settled in Aurora, WI, in 1952. Virgil preceded her death on September 22, 1981.

Corky resided at Stoneybrook Apartments in Aurora for the last thirteen years. She was a stay at home wife and mother. Corky was a wonderful cook and baker, making the best raviolis, gnocchis, homemade bread, dinner rolls, cinnamon rolls and meat pies, just to mention a few.

Corky was a member of the Sacred Heart Church in Aurora, a member of the Women's Alter Society, one of the Grand Marshals for the Aurora Centennial, and the oldest resident in Aurora.

She enjoyed writing poems, reading, working in the yard, flower gardening, going to the casino and talking on the phone, especially in Italian to her mother in earlier days. She loved the Packers and even attended a game in her nineties. Most of all, she loved all of her grandchildren, and she would light up when they stopped to visit her.

Corky is survived by her son, Dennis (Helga Anderson, significant other) Newingham; daughters, Diane (John) Aune and Dawn (Bob Bock, significant other) Wahlstrom; nine grandchildren, Gina (Troy) Frappier, Lori (Jay) Glime, Michael (Judy) Newingham, Mark (Cathrine Parker) Monosso, Rebecca (Mark) Trulock, Tammy (Terry) Dabb, Dean (Paula) Wahlstrom, David Wahlstrom, Leonard (Megan) Wahlstrom III; great-grandchildren, Jeff (Ashley) Frappier, Jason (Samantha) Frappier, Melissa (Mitch) Grahn, Jule (Katie) Glime, Jordan (Cole) Dollar, Jessica Glime (Nathan), Haley and Brooke Newingham, Mariah (Roger) Reiten, Jordan Monosso, Marquee (Jim) Wahoviak, Jacob (Ashley) Trulock, Hannah Dabb, Jesse, Eann and Emma Wahlstrom, Chloe and Chelsea Wahlstrom, LaVaya Wahlstrom and Haley Gabriel; great-great-grandchildren, Aidan, Raegan, Bowen, Mason, Savanna, Avery, Jaxon, Jace, Stella, Jaxson, Everett, Macy, Mary, and one on the way; former daughter-in-law Sue Newingham; three step-grandchildren, Raymond (Leslie) Aune, David (Susan) Aune, and Jean (Jim) Rickner; five step-great-grandchildren, Travis, Allison, Hannah, Jacob, and Jenna; many nieces and nephews and dear friends at Stoneybrook Apartments.

“ Dennis,
A wonderful lady and mother. When a loved one passes her memory becomes a treasure.
I never met your mother, but I remember working with you one summer at Norway Gravure. You always were good to work with and you helped me learn the label printing ropes. I think you also opened a restaurant in Wausaukee? We stopped there many times on our trips to Norway and our camp.

“ To Diane, Dawn, and Dennis ,
In the last years of my father's life he was in love with Corky and his life was spent devoted to her. He was with her whenever he had the chance at her house or he brought her back to his house. I can remember coming home to visit Dad and he and Corky would be sitting on the couch holding hands and watching the Packer game .
God bless them both and help you find comfort and peace at this time. Christopher Weasler

“ To the family of Corky, What a well lived life to a woman who always had a good time and enjoyed life. She was always pleasant to be around and you never knew what the conversation might end up at. Many laughs and fun to be with. I didn't see her much after I left Kingsford but when we were in town we managed to see her quit often. We were always greeted with a welcome. She is in a better place now, back with her first love. I will keep you in thoughts and prayers and may time help ease your pain.
