

Cynthia "Cindy" Lynn Feltner

April 17, 1968 - January 16, 2026

Cynthia Lynn (Pariseau) Feltner of Kingsford, MI, passed away peacefully on January 16, 2026, at the Marshfield Medical Center - Dickinson after a lengthy illness.

Cindy was born on April 17, 1968, to Ronnie and Edith (Maki) Pariseau and grew up in Gwinn, MI, in a neighborhood full of kids with woods to climb trees and lakes to swim in. She graduated from Gwinn High School in 1986 and immediately began making her way in the world, enjoying various careers starting from pastry making to banking and account administration.

She married the love of her life and best friend, Albert Feltner, Jr. on August 19, 1995. Over the years Cindy and Al lived and worked in many places, including Marquette and Ironwood, MI, and Boscobel, Shawano, and Sheboygan, WI, before settling down in Kingsford, MI, where they bought their first home, which she loved. Cindy then worked for the US Postal Service Distribution Center until her health declined in 2022.

Cindy made new friends wherever she roamed. Her family nicknamed her Cindy Lou, "Lou" for short, and the common chorus was "Everyone loves the Lou!" She was known for her strong work ethic (rarely missing a day of work), quick wit, determination, big heart, and collection of clothes from the 80's. She and Albert enjoyed traveling and trying their luck at casinos. Every night before they went to sleep one said, "I love you" and the other said "I love you more."

Cindy is survived by her soulmate of over 35 years, Albert Feltner, Jr. of Kingsford, MI; mother, Edith Pariseau of Gwinn, MI; siblings: Kathleen (Tom) Leone of Marquette, MI, Steven Pariseau of Gwinn, and Patti King of Fond du lac, WI; father-in-law, Albert (Kim) Feltner, Sr. of Escanaba, MI; special aunt, Clara Feltner of Marquette; sisters-in-law: Linda Davis of Missouri, Sandra (Joe) Drozd of Marquette, and Julie Feltner of Marquette; nephews: Logan King, Joseph (Vanessa) Davis, Franklin Drozd, and Christine (Bobby) Cole; great niece, Brayleigh Cole; great nephews: Jackson Feltner, Cash Cole and Apollo Davis; as well as many relatives and friends, including special friends Tracy (Hairy Neck, as Cindy called him) and Keren Smith.

She was preceded in death by her father, Ronnie Pariseau; maternal grandparents, Viano and Matt Maki; paternal grandparents, Burton and Sylvia Pariseau; mother-in-law, Shirley Miller and her husband, Lowell Miller; special uncle, Bill Maki; brother-in-law, Butch Davis; and nephew, Daniel Feltner.

Honoring Cindy's request, no public service will be held but always remember that each day with your loved ones is a gift.

In lieu of flowers, for those who wish to honor Cindy, please consider a donation to UPAWS, 815 South State Highway M553, Gwinn, MI, or an animal charity of your choice.

“ Al, I'm having a hard time believing our dear Cindy is in Heaven now. Yet, we know she's in a much better place and we must hold that dear. Cindy was an absolute treat to behold. We had so many fun times together over the past 30+ years. Our 4th of July get-togethers, the numerous family birthday parties and oh, the Christmas gatherings!! Our Red Lobster excursions when my alligator arms would suddenly grow, to the Heinz “76” night. The calling Al and Joe Dumas in the casino to page you two as Cindy and I struggled to keep from bursting out in laughter. The special gifts she chose for me I hold very dear. There was no one in her life more important than you, Al. She had no hesitation in letting everyone know and see how dearly she loved you!! You were always going to come first, no matter what. True devotion that is rarely seen. Stubborn? Whoa, that she was. In the best way. Fiercely protective of you and her loved ones. Such a beautiful girl inside and out.
I will hold your and our dear Cindy Lou in my heart forever.
God bless you Cindy. Thank you for you. I love you.
