“ Dear Fred - When I looked at Danny's picture, I went back a whole lot of years. Lord, he had the best smile!! Even now I can hear him laughing!! Danny will always have a special place in my heart - there are so many goofus moments from high school and so many of them revolve around Danny laughing at me. I truly believe that anyone who had the opportunity to experience Danny's sense of humor walked away a better person for it, while knowing they had a very loyal friend standing next to them. I am so very sorry to hear of his passing. Love, Sheryl

“ Dear Fred and Sam,
We were so shocked to hear of Danny's passing. Please accept our sympathy and prayers. We had some fun times with Danny in Milwaukee and Spread Eagle. Even though time has passed, our children have grown, and we have not seen each other in a while, you hold a special place in our hearts.

“ I'll always remember the quick smile that came to both Dan's and my faces when we ran into each other. I'm sad I won't be able to do that any more.

Spread Eagle Fireworks, Spera's and the Curve are a few things that remind me of Dan.

My thoughts and prayers to his family.

“ Fred & Sam: Like so many others I was shocked and deeply saddened to hear that Danny had left us. Just last Spring we were planning on getting together, but he got company from out of town suddenly, and we put it on a back burner until next Spring. I only wish I had heard in time to be there to see him off, but I wasn't told until Sunday morning, and I was traveling. My deepest and sincere condolences, as well as those from the remnants of the old gang in Milwaukee - Howie Fink, Tom Gramoli, Jeff Curro, Pat Matthews, Charlie Johnson, and Joe Mills (now of MN). To a man we all considered Danny a dear friend, and we will all cherish the memories of happier times together at the T-House.

“ I have known Danno for only a few years.
He IS and will always be a great man.
He has moved onto another plain of life; but he will always be here with his love and friendship. The one thing that he always did was care of people.
In the time that he is gone and then we get to be with him again, he will always count on us to take care of Cookie. Also to pass on the kindness and humor that he gave to all of us in need.
Remember the happy man. Remember the generosity. Remember the heavy weight that was on his shoulders---it was all of us. He wanted us all to be happy, protected and loved and he thought he could do it all.
If I can say anything about any person on earth; I am proud to know Danno. He shall be missed by me and so many others.
Let's all understand that Cookie was the person that he waited for and finally found. He wants her to finally be ok. He told us all that. So now, let us back that woman up and let her have a good life.
Neither one of them ever knew happiness until they met each other and such a rare gift in life.
We need to celebrate such a unique man.
We need to remember that not many people have so many that will sit with them on the waiting.
We need to remember that goodness will always win.
Such a winner he IS!
Let's lift a glass to him and all of us for the unbelievable chance of knowing such a fine man.
