“ Regardless to what everyone else says and thinks you were my baby and always will be. There's not a day that goes by that I don't thinkin about you. I do want to express my deepest sympathy to Tom, Scott and Clint for their loss. Dan was a wonderful individual who made a lasting impression on everyone he met. I miss you baby!
Love always,
Me and the kids.

“ I didn't know dan much more than a hello here and there in high school, but I do know his sister "Peanut" Cherish maynard, and want to express my sincere sympathy to all of his family...it can never be fair when someone so young is taken...I also knew his special friend Rebecca Waligursky pretty well at one time. My thoughts are with you all and may you find the peace that you need to cope with your loss. Sincerely, April M. Barkle-Savola
