“ Daniel, I miss you every day. I'm so sorry I wasn't a better father, better friend, better at whatever it is you wanted / needed. I hope and pray we will see each other again one day. Any time you're ready so am I. You were, and always will be, my one and only son. I write this with a heavy heart and tears in my eyes as I walk thru this life alone every day. Life will never be the same. I will never know your family, wife, sons, daughters. And that saddens me even more. There is no answer of how to get thru this. You just put one foot in front of the other everyday. There is no pep in my step anymore. Nothing to look forward to. It really doesn't matter does it? What does it all mean? Whats the point? Guide me in my struggle ahead and take me when the time is right. In God's name I pray: Our father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven, give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever and ever. AMEN.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I don't think we have the understanding in this life to see how God's plans work out. We can only have faith that someday all will be revealed. May God bring healing to you and your family. Randy, when we were younger, you and I lived next door to each other on "D" Street. I am praying for you and your family.

“ Your sons obituary caught my attention. I'm sure it was the picture in the paper. You see when I started reading the words "Up North" grabbed me, you see there is only one "Up North" and it was what I thought. I am a "Yooper" coming from Manistique, I have lived here in Fayetteville for the past 14 years because of Fort Bragg as well. My sons also looked forward to the summer trips to the U.P. going to camp, four wheeling and spending time and leaving the life of a Yooper. May God be with you at this time and you have people here thinking of you and praying for you.

“ I read with great sadness the loss of a son and brother. I lost my one and only brother almost 20 years ago to a car/motorcycle accident and I feel the sorrow that you as his parents and siblings are feeling at this time. With the strength of family and friends, things will get better. Just take one day at a time. You will always miss him, and just take time to grieve and the rest will take care of itself. “ Randy & Barb,

As a fellow classmate of Randy's I was sad to hear of the passing of your son Daniel. Mark and I have two sons and we know how much of yourself is reflected and invested in them. I know that at his age, I never really understood the depth of a parent's love - I don't think you really do until you become a parent.

I didn't know Daniel, but I am sure he made you proud and was very loved. We hope that the memories you have gathered will help to comfort you when you need it most. Please know that your family is our prayers and that as a member of the class of 1977, that you will always have classmates who will remember you and care about you. God Bless

“ Although I only met you one time Shivy, I will never forget how sweet, funny, and charismatic you were. There obviously was a reason I randomly met you and hung out with you guys, even if it was for one night. For one night I met a genuine great person. We'll all miss you.

“ Randy-Barb and girls, I am a classmate of Rany's and Brenda and I would like to take a moment and offer our condolences to you all, Even though we did not know Daniel I am sure that he was a gentleman. I hung with both Randy and Barb in school and I know that you all had great expectations so I can only imagine that Daniel was all that you expected him to be in growing up. I am sure that he has left you both with many smiles like Randy has shared with me growing up. I trust you will find your peace in God knowing that Daniel is now in a safe heaven.

“ I justed wanted you to know you are in my thoughts and prayers. Here is a poem I found that I thought you could use, it is called I'm Free.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of the day.If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. Oh yes, these things I to will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much. Good times, good friends, a loved ones touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee. God wanted me now; He set me free.

*I am glad I got to see Daniel when you were here in July. I'll always remember the big hug he gave me before he left. He will be missed.

“ When Mr. Shivy called me on Tuesday, September 2nd and left me that voicemail, my heart just dropped. I cared about Daniel dearly, and still do. I miss him so much, and wish I could've gotten to know him better. I am thinkin about the family and prayin for all of you every day. He will always be remembered in my heart, and yours too. I know he is looking over us right now and smiling, because that's the type of person that he was. Daniel was always laughing and smiling, and that's how we will all remember him. My deepest thoughts and prayers go out to the Shivy family. Much love, Susan Stewart
