“ dear daddy, boy oh boy do I miss you. I still haven't accepted the fact that you're really gone. I still wake up everyday waiting to get your phone calls & hear your voice & come see you & laugh with you. you were and always will be my hero & I'll always be your little girl. words can't describe how much pain I'm in from missing you. you were always my rock, my shoulder to cry on, who's going to kick all these dumb boys butts for me now? or as you would say "punch them in the head". just know daddy that I appreciate you so much & you'll always be with me. wish I could see you again, my life is so much darker without you here. I can't wait until the day we meet again, give grandpa & grandma jo a hug & kiss for me. miss you so much daddy & I love you always & forever. love, your little girl.

“ Dan you will truly be missed by friends and family. You were a blessing to all who knew you. I remember all the fun times when we were kids getting together at your house when I was younger we were all there having fun. Being together as a family. But thru the years we have all lost touch with each other which makes me very sad. It seems like we had a family get together constantly. I miss those days. I know that my Mom and your Dad were waiting to welcome you home and show you around. I know that God will comfort all us. I pray that God comfort your children. And that they know that God welcomed a man home with a very big heart. Your cousin- Laura Van Horn
PS : Give my Mom a hug and kiss for me and tell you I miss her every day.

“ As I sit here with such a heavy heart I have to share a few things about my brother. He is the person that made me always feel safe and loved. He protected me as only a brother can, he always made me feel like I was the most important person in his life and he loved me unconditionally as only a brother can. Danny I love you more than I can ever say but I know you knew that and for this I am truly thankful. Joshua, Sean & Ryan wanted to also add Uncle Dan thank for being the rock we could all depend on no matter what life gave us. Rest well my brother and give Dad my love. During this time of such overwhelming loss it is a comfort to know you are together again.

*I love you.....

“ To the family of Dan Weaver, especially to Lynn - my heart goes out to all of you at your time of grief. There are no words that can ease the pain of the loss of a man you all loved. Dan was a great guy from what I did know of him, I will never forget how he made sure my Daddy was comfortable and kept an eye on him while he was in rehab. I will always cherish the memories I have of him especially for his caring heart and the good times we had at the ski jumps and parties at your home. I will continue to keep you in my thoughts and prayers. It is not our place to question why the Lord took Dan at such an early age, all we can do is trust that Dan is now at peace with others that have gone before him and that he lives in your hearts and memories forever.

So very sorry for you loss
