Daniel George Weber of Aurora, WI, born September 8, 1965, went to be with his Lord on December 9, 2015, with family at his side. Dan was a man of great faith, who lived and loved life to the fullest. Dan was a content man, happy no matter what the circumstances, as long as he was with his wife, children, family and friends. Dan was a blessing to everyone who met him. With his positive spirit, he was an encouragement to those around him. Always loving. Always positive.

Always a smile. Always a warm heart. As Dan himself said just recently, "I'm a happy man." That's the Dan that will live in our hearts forever.

“ Ken and I are so sorry for your loss. Dan was a remarkable man. We had alot of laughs when we lived across the river, especially when you guys would have the Johnny Cash review. You both always made us feel welcome We will miss him so much. Take care and prayers are with you and your family

“ To Renee and family, I am so very saddened and sorry for your loss of such a kind and loving husband, father, and friend, Danny.

The first time I met you both was at my husband's brothers 40th birthday party. We sat together and laughed as Dan recalled stories of fun times he and Kirt had together helping out and often misbehaving on the farm where Danny grew up. Since I was fairly "new" to the family, I will never forget how welcomed and comfortable he made me feel. He truly was one of a kind and he will always hold a special place in my heart.

This quote is one that seems to have been created specifically for Danny-

"A life that touches others goes on forever".

Please know you and your children and family are in my thoughts and prayers.

With all our love and prayers,
Jenny and Kirt Wedin

“ The first people we noticed, when my husband and I first attended Cornerstone Church, were Dan and his beautiful wife Rene. They were holding hands and swinging them during worship. The love and joy they exhibited for God and each other just brought joy to my heart! Dan was the first person to speak to us, and welcomed us warmly. Dan was a man without judgement of others, genuine in his words and deeds, and full of the love of life, his family and God. Tho we did not spend any time with him away from church I can speak for both of us that we were privileged to know him the little that we did, for the short time that we did. Heaven is a happier place, and until we meet again....

Ed and I also met Dan and Renee at church. We sat on the same side and laughed and cried at the same things. There was an instant bond between the four of us. I taught their boys in Sunday School too. Precious, smart, creative, fun little reflections of Dan. Dan truly did have a zest for life and made sure that everyone around him did too. He was definitely a man's man but also had a fantastic creative side. From the home he built to his love of hunting and fishing.... He loved God and his Renee so much. He took great strides in raising his children in a Godly home. His boys and girls understood his deep love for them too. We are blessed to have known Dan here in this temporary home and we looking forward to eternity with this amazing man of God. My God continue bless Renee and the boys and the rest of his family. We are but keepers of Gods gifts... We love you Renee. Never worry or be afraid. God is right by your side and so are we.
