“ Sylvia,
I couldn't believe it when I saw that David had passed. It took my breath away. David and Jill were good friends when they were young growing up in school. He was such a good boy. Jill always loved pushing him around in his wheel chair. My heart is so sad for your loss and understands the feeling. David is in a wonderful place and I'm sure he and Jill are having loads of fun right now.

“ It is hard to put into words the void you've left behind, but it's so easy to remember the light you brought into every room. You were one of a kind- a person who seemed to live with a permanent smile and a heart that never knew how to be upset. I will miss those hugs the most! They were the kind of hugs that made everything feel okay. Your spirit was so bright that it was impossible to stay down when you were around; you lifted us all up just by being yourself. Youve left a permanent mark on everyone's hearts who were lucky enough to cross your path. You are deeply missed and will never be forgotten, until we meet again buddy rest easy. I know you're in heaven running around right now and spending much needed time with your dad <3

“ Sylvia, I’m sorry for the loss of David. I knew him from working at Riverview, and he was a ray of sunshine. We played “Name that Tune,” and I’d hum a song from one of his dvds, and he would sign whether it was a Barney, Elmo, or Christmas tune. I don’t believe I ever saw him angry. David was a precious soul. He loved choices, and he loved days when Mom and Aunt Barb came to visit. He showed gratitude for care, and he was such a warm and mannerly gentleman. He had a hug and a smile for everyone. He listened attentively and had a memory like an elephant! His beautiful soul will be missed.
