

David Linn

January 10, 2008

IRON MOUNTAIN - David Clark Linn, 45, of 711 E. Margaret St. in Iron Mountain, died Thursday, Jan. 10, 2008, at the VA Medical Center in Iron Mountain.

He was born May 30, 1962, in Iron Mountain, son of Clark and Joan (Hyland) Linn. He was a lifelong resident of this area and graduated from Kingsford High School in 1980. David earned an associate degree from Bay College following graduation. He served in the United States Air force.

David had been a member of Pine Grove Country Club and Timberstone Golf Course. He was an avid outdoorsman and loved golfing, hunting, fishing, gardening, and spending time at camp with family and friends. He also loved to watch his nieces and nephews participate in sports.

He is survived by his parents, Clark and Joan Linn; one sister, Mary (Mark) Balcer of Kingsford; one brother, John (Beth) Linn of Kingsford; and his nieces and nephews, Cari and Catherine Dulan and Joseph, Allen, and Emma Linn.

Friends may call from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. Monday at the Kingsford Funeral Home.

A memorial Mass will be celebrated on Tuesday at 11 a.m. at American Martyrs Church. Fr. Joseph Gouin will offer the Mass of Christian Burial.

Honorary pallbearers will be Corey Barnes, Steve Coughlin, Todd Johnson, Robert Lindholm Jr., Lance Peterson, and Bill Wittenbach.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Marygrove Retreat Center in Garden.

Condolences to the family of David Linn may be expressed online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon and Nash Kingsford Funeral Home with the arrangements.

“ Dear Clark, Joan and family. My deepest sympathy for the loss of your son and brother David. I went to school with him and although many people picked on and teased me, David never did. He was a compassionate and caring person and the world was a better place with him in it. May God give you the strength to get threw this very difficult time and help you to remember the precious moments you all shared with David.

2 Corinthians, Chapter 4:

7 But we hold this treasure in earthen vessels, that the surpassing power may be of God and not from us.

8 We are afflicted in every way, but not constrained; perplexed, but not driven to despair;

9 persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed;

10 always carrying about in the body the dying of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our body.

11 For we who live are constantly being given up to death for the sake of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh.

“ Clark, Joan, & John:

We want to send out our deepest sympathies on the passing of Davy. I will always remember that he was always happy to see everyone. He had a gift for making folks feel welcome instantaneously. He was too young and will be missed by all who knew him. May he rest in peace.

“ Dear Linn Family, My husband and I were so sorry to read of David's passing. He lived next door to my mother (Mary Sontag) on Margaret St. He was very kind to her and, at times, helped us with shoveling her drive way during the winter. My mother always appreciated his help. He will be missed - good people always are.
