“ My thoughts and prayers are with Debbie's family and my brother Jeremy. I was fortunate to finally meet Debbie a couple months ago. She was a beautiful, sweet young woman, and I enjoyed talking to her. My whole family thought highly of Debbie. I don't know why loved ones are taken away from us suddenly, but, you will always have the good memories, and time will heal the pain.

“ I went to high school with Debbie and had the pleasure of knowing her. She was a wonderful person and friend to many recent graduates of North Dickinson and I know that many are in sorrow over this tragedy. She died at a very young age with a bright future which she never got to live, but God is now watching over Debbie and I wish her peace. My sincere condolences to the family of Debbie and her fiance...I'm sorry for your loss. May God help you in this sorrowful time. Love, Jody Dixon

“ My deepest condolences go out to Debbie's family and friends. I am so sorry this had to happen to such an innocent person. I am sure my brother, Jeremy will miss Debbie in many ways and all his heart. It is such a sad thing to see a beautiful young lady go so early in her life. May God BLess Debbie and Keep Debbie in His Loving Arms.
