“ I did not know Delores very long, only a few months, however the time I spent with her was very precious. As an Activity aid I would spend brief periods of time looking at pictures of flowers and reading short stories with Delores. Sometimes she would share a brief word or two, and when she found something amusing and would give a little giggle, my heart would be delighted . When I would ask her if I could give her a hug, she would always nod or say "sure"! Her smile could melt an igloo! I will miss our brief moments, and keep her in my heart always until we meet again.
