

Donald J. Baravetto

May 10, 1931 - December 5, 2019

Donald J. Baravetto, 88, of Iron Mountain, passed away peacefully surrounded by his loving family on Thursday, December 5, 2019 at Dickinson County Healthcare System.

Don was born on May 10, 1931 in Iron Mountain, son of the late James and Rose (Andrini) Baravetto. He graduated from Iron Mountain High School in 1950 and proudly served in the United States Navy for four years.

Don married Lola Sparapani on July 2, 1955 at St. Mary Queen of Peace Church. He worked for AT&T as a construction and engineering manager for 30 years, retiring in 1986.

He was a member of Immaculate Conception Church.

Don was an avid outdoorsman who loved hunting deer; throughout his lifetime, he accomplished the admirable feat of harvesting exactly one hundred whitetail deer. He was a skilled dog trainer who enjoyed hunting rabbits with his beagles. Spending time at Camp Pottsville with his family and friends was time well spent. Trout fishing was another of Donald's lifelong passions, and anyone inquiring where he caught his latest limit were quick to hear him reply, "Never ask a trout fisherman where he got the trout because he will never tell you!" Lastly, gardening was a skill Donald mastered. Each summer his garden produced plentiful fruits and vegetables, and he found great satisfaction in sharing his harvest with family and friends.

Don loved his three girls, and his grandchildren and great-grandchildren were his pride and joy. He cherished his time with them, always sure to give a hug and a kiss, a gentle reminder of how much he loved each one of them.

Don was blessed with friends, too numerous to mention, and he cherished each and every one of them. He was a humble, generous man, always willing to help anyone in need. His greatest legacy was his generous gift of a college education to his eight grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Jimmy and a special cousin, John, and a step-grandson, Jason Maraccini.

Donald is survived by his wife of 64 years, Lola; his daughters, Pamela (Jack) Wallis and Paula (Steve) Gazza of Kingsford and Patti (Mike) Maloney of Clinton, MI; his grandchildren, Ben (Christine) Wallis and their children, Connor and Chloe, Brock (Alyssa) Wallis and their children, Talia, Eli and Lakyn, Katie (Rusty) Baker and their children, Marli and Reid, Alyssa (Justin) Schuelke and their daughter, Giana, Jessa (Blake) Everman, Krista (Brent) Buchcusi and their children, Jake and Baya, Allison (Maloney) Glasby and Rayce Maraccini (Jenna Steward); a step-granddaughter, Mel (Jerry Cazzolla) Gazza and her children, Lacey and Gage and his son, Braxton; step-grandsons, Nathan Gazza and Andy (Miranda) Gazza and their children, Audrina and Bella; his brother, Roger (Pat) Baravetto; his sister, Gail Baravetto; several nieces and nephews; and many special friends.

Visitation will be held on Friday, December 13 from 10:00 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. at the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home. A Memorial Mass will follow at 1:00 P.M. at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Iron Mountain. Msgr.

“ I am a cousin who has always lived in the Milwaukee Wisconsin area. I did not know Don as closely as many who were blessed to be his close friends. But, I always enjoyed seeing and talking to him at our family get-togethers. He had a unique charisma in the way he spoke and the way he carried himself. I particularly enjoyed his stories of his youth that he told to nearly 75 people at our Baravetto family reunion in 2018.

To a life well lived...

“ I'm proud to have had Donald as a great friend and mentor. He taught me about gardening, frying trout and pruning grape vines. A famous saying of his was "happy wife, happy life". So true my friend! God bless. Chuck Peterson.

“ So Sorry Donald has passed but he had a wonderful life and I have lots of good memories of him when I was a kid...He was always full of fun and very positive. His wonderful family lived next door to us and I still keep in touch with Dons sister Gail. We played together growing up on the North Side of Iron Mountain...I remember a Model A or T that he or brother Jim had...They would take us kids for a ride in it some times . “ Don used to grab Steve Feira, Neal Johnson, Tom Perk and myself and would draw out a potential hunting scenario. He would ask us various questions and he would expect the correct answer. He always told us “I taught you all you know but not everything I know!!”

Awesome hunter but more importantly an awesome man

“ My cousin Don was a very special person. He was such a loving, caring husband to Lola and he was so proud of his three daughters and grandchildren and great grandkids. I loved to hear from Don and we would reminisce about our growing up years and time spent with our grandparents. He was such a great outdoorsman hunting and going to “camp”! My brothers, Don and Jim, loved spending time with him not only as kids but in later years as well. In my husband was still living he would be telling me to say Don was the BEST trout fisherman there was 😊. There was so much love that came out of the Baravetto clan and he lived it every day!

Memories will help all of us to get through this tough time. My thoughts and, especially prayers, are with his daughters and their families and especially to Gail and Roger, His siblings. ❤️❤️😊 Cousin Maxine Eddy “ Spent many days and nights as a kid growing up close to Don and Lola’s house. With three daughters, all the neighborhood boys were often found sitting on his front porch. Don was always kind and good to us, despite the trouble we once in awhile would cause. He often mentioned to me about the time I threw the boomerang by his house, and it came down and hit the neighbor’s new car. He always laughed at that but never forgot to remind me of that day. Rest In Peace, Don. Truly you were a fine man!

“ Bar was always quick to ask us questions (what we called drilling us) Mike and Steve Feira, and me about where we were deer hunting, what post we were in, wind direction, and any signs. If we got any of the questions wrong, you had to pay the price of verbal scolding. Bar would be at a social gathering and you would see him circling around the room looking for us to ask those questions. At times we would try to avoid him and he would cut us off and say to us: I know what you G.D. guys are doing but I am smarter than you. We would laugh and get the questions asked and subsequent scolding because we were always hunting in the wrong spot. All I can say is that he was a true friend and I enjoyed every minute with him and even enjoyed the verbal scolding. You will never see another woodsman like Bar for the rest of you life. Loved the man like a father. Neal Johnson
