“ I lived above Don in his upstairs apartment from 1996-2001. He was a great landlord and a wonderful man. He was very helpful and kind, and I felt very "taken care of" there. I know that he had strong faith, and I know that he is in a place with no pain or suffering. My memories of Iron Mountain will always include my little apartment and Don downstairs. He will be greatly missed. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.
