Doris Rodman

KINGSFORD - Doris M. Rodman, 84, of Kingsford died peacefully at home with her family and hospice on Tuesday, June 6, 2006, in Tucson, Ariz.

She was a long time resident of the Kingsford area.

She was born on Sept. 15, 1921, in Goodman, Wis., daughter of the late Louis and Lela (Champagne) Viens. Doris graduated from Iron Mountain High School.

She married Matt Rodman at the American Martyrs Catholic Church in Kingsford on Sept. 6, 1941, and he preceded her in death in 1985.

Doris worked for the Miller Insurance Agency in Iron Mountain. She was a long time member of American Martyrs Catholic Church, and a member of the ladies guild for many years, she was a volunteer worker for the church. She moved from Kingsford to Texas in 2002, and in 2004, she moved to a retirement community in Tucson with her son and daughter-in-law. While in Texas, she volunteered at Christian Services. In Arizona, Doris enjoyed playing cards at the activity center, volunteering with the activities committee, cross stitching, keeping in touch with her friends by e-mail, and trips to the casino.

She is survived by a son, Matt (Janet) Rodman of Tucson and a granddaughter, Cheryl Wilcox of Hamilton Lakes.

Doris was preceded in death by a brother and two sisters.

Visitation will be held on Wednesday, July 5 from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the American Martyrs Catholic Church in Kingsford.

The funeral Mass will follow at 11 a.m. at the church. Fr. Joseph Gouin will offer the Mass of Christian Burial.

Burial will be in the Quinnesec Cemetery.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Doris M. Rodman online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon and Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements.
